HOW TO PROMOTE A BRAND THAT WILL ATTRACT THE CROWDS?

When in 2005 we decided to release our first inflatable, we did not expect that in such a short time we could achieve such a great success in the field of outdoor advertising. Years of experience in the pneumatic advertising industry have taught us that there is a way for everything.

Does the pneumatic advertising producer sound scary? Think of us as a guide, a friend who will safely lead you through the paths of your event travel. We are not only about producing advertising media, we select the right solution for each client to meet their expectations.

We know how important it is to have fun during the events. Especially at events where the customer likes to be surprised at every turn, creativity counts. We are full of ideas and effective solutions and we are not afraid of even the biggest challenges.

#CustomizedInflatables

#Outdoor

In Poltent, we are not afraid to combine fantasy and the real world. It was like that at the beginning and it is today. No matter what challenges will get in our way, what requirements the client will throw at us, we will be ready for them together.

#CreateYourBrand

We would like to know that the inflatable structures can be in many different colours and are full of surprises that will even enchant the most demanding guests. We transform your needs into solutions.

Presenting you with this catalogue, we would like to brief you a wide range of services we offer and the possibilities of using pneumatic advertising in the event area. Are you ready to go for gold?

PORTALS OF JOY

Create positive vibes! A gate is more than just an advertising space where you can display your logo at every event. This is a real "Portal of Joy" which takes people to a better place! This is clearly seen during concerts and sports events, where thousands of people come to fulfil their dreams. The gate opens space for people and puts your company right in the center of events.

AN UNUSUAL TENT

Do you care about a good company image and great relations with business partners? Would you like to attract attention at the event and at the same time show off your best side? Go for inflatable tents! A tent is not only an advertising space, but also a wonderful meeting place. This is a place where you can make contacts, invite guests or potential customers for a coffee and tell them about your company's plans. A tent is a perfect solution and offers a constant element at most events.

CONSTANT PRESSURE

CONSTANT PRESSURE PRODUCTS

In order to meet your expectations, we have developed VENTO® line – range of modern constant pressure products.

Constant pressure products (also called air-tight) are inflatables, which because of the hermetic modules filled with air, allow us to display advertising, without any need of using ventilator, which also makes them very quiet advertising medium. VENTO® products are the new dimension of events! No more worries about constant access to electricity, therefore they are perfect for using both indoors as well as outdoors.

It's very simple to change graphics in VENTO® products, by using exchangeable sheating. In VENTO® line assortment you will find light and modern tents, functional gates, screens, practical advertising pillars and furniture like promotion counters, tables, chairs and sofas.
